

CIRCULAR

As directed by the learned Advocate General, Haryana, all the supervisors of the respective Branches of the office have been asked to direct their subordinates that all briefs/peshi assigned to the Law Officers be got page marked as per High Court paper book and same must be properly tagged and completed in every respect. The briefs are also required to contain all interim orders passed by the Hon'ble High Court on different dates. The office has also been directed to make available files of motion cases to the Law Officers one day earlier before lunch hours as Motion List is issued by the High Court two days before the date of hearing. Necessary instructions in this regard have been circulated to the incharges of all the Branches vide circulars dated 14/11/2014 and 19/11/2014.

All the Law Officers are requested to report to the Officer-on-Special Duty or the learned Advocate General about any deficiency in any file if briefs assigned to them are found to be incomplete in any manner. The learned Advocate General has also directed that the peshi files with the Law Officers must be complete alongwith interim orders passed in the cases. The Law Officers must consult interim orders passed on earlier dates from the High Court website even if such orders are not put in briefs by the office while separately reporting about the files being not complete or not containing interim orders in the case.
